

4 Double Crochet Cluster Stitch

4 Double Crochet Cluster Stitch

The 4 Double Crochet Cluster Stitch is a gorgeous way to add soft texture and dimension to your crochet projects. Similar to the 5 double crochet cluster, this variation uses four double crochets joined together at the top to form a puff-like stitch that's slightly flatter and lighter, perfect for cozy blankets, scarves, or accent rows.

This stitch is a great next step once you've mastered the basic double crochet. It gives your crochet fabric a subtle, decorative texture while keeping it flexible and easy to work with.

What Is a Double Crochet Cluster?

A cluster stitch is made by partially completing several double crochet stitches in the same space, then finishing them all together as one. The 4 double crochet cluster means you'll work four unfinished double crochets, leaving one loop from each on your hook, and then yarn over and pull through all loops at once.

The result? A beautiful, puffed stitch with a soft, raised texture that looks fantastic in rows or as part of patterned designs.

Crochet Stitch Method

1. Work 4 dc into same stitch/space.
2. Skip pattern-specified sts, repeat.

Step by Step

How to Crochet the 4 Double Crochet Cluster Stitch

Materials You'll Need

- Yarn of your choice (medium or worsted weight works best for beginners)
- Crochet hook that matches your yarn weight
- Scissors
- Tapestry needle for weaving in ends

Skill Level: Beginner to Intermediate

If you know how to double crochet, you can easily make this stitch!

Abbreviations (US / UK Terms)

(US Term | UK Term) - Meaning

- (ch / ch) chain
- (dc / tr) double crochet / treble
- (st / st) stitch
- (yo / yo) yarn over

Follow these step-by-step instructions using US terms (UK terms in brackets):

1. Yarn over, insert hook into the indicated stitch or space.
2. Yarn over and pull up a loop (3 loops on hook).
3. Yarn over, pull through 2 loops (2 loops remain).
4. Repeat steps 1-3 three more times into the same stitch or space. You'll now have 5 loops on your hook (1 from the start + 4 unfinished double crochets).
5. Yarn over and pull through all 5 loops on your hook at once to close the cluster.
6. Chain 1 to secure (optional, depending on pattern).

That's one 4 double crochet cluster complete!

Imagine working four half-finished double crochets that all come together at the top to create one soft, puffed stitch. The look is textured yet elegant — ideal for adding pattern interest without extra bulk.

Tips for Success

- Keep loops loose: Don't pull too tightly when working partial double crochets, you'll need enough space to pull through all loops smoothly.
- Use even tension: Consistent tension helps each cluster look uniform.
- Chain between clusters: Add one chain after each cluster to prevent crowding and keep your rows even.
- Practice in rows: Use a foundation row of double crochet stitches before trying clusters — it keeps your base stable.

Common Mistakes & How to Fix Them

Problem: Cluster too tight

If the last pull-through is difficult, loosen your tension slightly when making each partial double crochet.

Problem: Gaps between clusters

Chain 1 after each cluster to space them evenly and improve alignment.

Problem: Yarn splitting

Twist your hook slightly when pulling through all loops — it helps guide the yarn cleanly through.

Where to Use the 4 Double Crochet Cluster Stitch

Great for:

- Textured crochet blankets
- Cushion covers

- Baby blankets
- Shawls and scarves
- Decorative panels or afghans

This stitch works beautifully in rows, stripes, or combined with simpler stitches for added dimension.

Variations

Try these variations:

- 3 dc cluster: Lighter, flatter texture for delicate projects.
- 5 dc cluster: More puffed and dramatic for textured afghans.
- Cluster + chain pattern: Alternate clusters and chain spaces for an open, lacy look.

Troubleshooting Common Beginner Problems

If you find the last step (pulling through all loops) tricky, remember to keep all loops even on your hook and pull gently, not forcefully. Using a hook with a rounded head can also make this easier, especially with fuzzy or split-prone yarns.

The 4 Double Crochet Cluster Stitch is an easy yet stunning way to add texture to your crochet work. Once you've practiced the motion, you'll love how rhythmic and satisfying it feels — and how beautifully it elevates your projects.

Whether you're creating a chunky throw or a delicate baby blanket, this stitch adds the perfect touch of texture and charm.

Four loops, one pull a simple technique that makes your crochet pop!

Crochet Stitch Practice Example

Practice Swatch Exercise

1. Chain 21 (multiple of 5 + 1).
2. Work Row 1 (4 DC cluster + SC separator) across the row.
3. Work Row 2 into the center of previous clusters for 4–6 rows.
4. Observe the raised, compact clusters forming neatly.
5. Adjust tension and spacing for perfectly aligned clusters.

The 4 Double Crochet Cluster Stitch is a versatile and decorative stitch that adds subtle texture and dimension to crochet projects. Beginners can master this stitch by practicing partial DCs and cluster formation, creating professional-looking results suitable for blankets, scarves, home décor, and garments. It's a go-to stitch for adding texture and visual interest without complexity.
