

Herringbone Double Crochet

Herringbone Double Crochet

The Herringbone Double Crochet (HbDC) Stitch is a versatile and striking crochet stitch that creates a dense, textured fabric with a subtle diagonal pattern, resembling a herringbone weave. It's perfect for blankets, scarves, bags, and garments that need both structure and softness.

This stitch is slightly taller than a regular double crochet but shorter than a treble, making it ideal for projects where you want a firm but flexible fabric. Its distinctive diagonal lines give projects a modern, elegant look, making the HbDC Stitch a favorite among crocheters of all skill levels.
